

TMPIS/CIR/40/18-19

Date: 3rd December 2018

Dear Parents,

Greetings from TM PATEL INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL!!!

“What is the most underused resource in education today? This resource can increase student engagement and achievement and decrease a teacher’s workload. The answer? Parents! Parental involvement is clearly linked with academic success for all students” -- Lauren Tripp Barlis

TM Patel International School believes that parents play a vital role in the overall growth of the child hence, the School has organized an event for students and parents of Nursery and KG I.

“Back to School” is an event where we are providing an opportunity to the parents and the child to dress each other. The costume should be based on theme wherein the parents are supposed to dress up as school students and children are supposed to dress up as their parents.

Kindly go through the details mentioned below and submit the “Registration Form” by 5th December 2018.

Name of the Event	Back to School
Theme	Stay Cool and Return to School
Day and Date	Friday, 7th December 2018
Time	4.30 pm to 7.30 pm
Costumes	Should be based on theme
Participation	Student with mother or father (any one)
Criteria For Judgment	Creativity in Costume, Reverse Role Play, Confidence, Make up

There will be two rounds:

Round 1: Judgement will be based on the creativity in costume.

Round 2: Based on reverse role play of the participants, the finalist will be selected. In this both parent and child have to perform.

Maximum participation is expected to make this event successful. Keep the spirit high and mammas and daddies be ready to support your young talent!!!! :

Best regards,

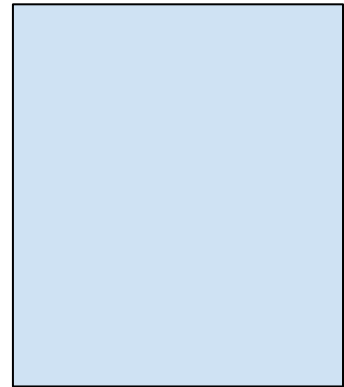

Ms. Sudha Murugkar

Principal
